

2005 Summer Visitation Schedule

Pursuant to the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines, each parent shall receive one-half (½) of the summer vacation with the child(ren). The time may be either consecutive or split into two (2) segments. During any extended summer period of more than two (2) consecutive weeks with the non-custodia parent, the custodial parent shall have the benefit of the regular parenting time schedule set forth above, unless impracticable because of distance created by out of town vacations.
